the 1990s, the number of people with a mental health problem has increased by 50% (Mental Health Foundation 1999). The prevalence of mental health problems has increased in the general population, and the incidence of mental health problems has increased in the prison population (Mental Health Foundation 1999).

There is a growing awareness of the need to address the mental health needs of prisoners. The Department of Health (1999) has published a strategy for mental health services, which includes a commitment to improve the mental health of prisoners. The Department of Health (1999) has also published a strategy for mental health services, which includes a commitment to improve the mental health of prisoners.

"I'm SO embarrassed!"

"Who put the gum in my potatoes?"

You'll get over it, Ron.

"Hi guys."

"She's smashing my tutu."

"We are the boys from Illinois, . . ."

"I want to go home!"

"You've got the cutest little baby face."

"Little Surfer Girl"

"Every picture tells a story."

"We're all bozos on this bus."

She's cute, isn't she?

"Gee, thanks mom."

"Little does she realize what she's eating."

What do you think, Madge?

Pretty funny, Matt.

She's pretty cute, too.

You've got a lot to live
Pepsi's got a lot to give

What we mean is this: living isn't always easy, but it never has to be dull. There's too much to see, to do, to enjoy. Put yourself behind a Pepsi-Cola and get started. You've got a lot to live.

LONG WALKED ROAD

Well my friend,

Soon we'll begin our own separate paths.
 Uncertainty will arise in each of us
 As we plow our way through time.
 We'll fight for our own individuality
 As we strive for separate dreams.
 Our paths of life will bend and turn from one another
 And two separate roads will appear,
 One winding your way, one winding mine.

But my friend,

When this happens,
 I hope and I pray
 That we'll meet every so often
 On that crossing for pedestrians,
 And find that our two separate roads
 Can criss-cross again . . . and again,
 And that our friendship will always be.

P.S.
